TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

Paris, 21st—The well-known French editor, J. J. Weiss, died last night.

Brussels, 21st—Not only the Ultramontane party but also the Liberals admit that a revision of the labour laws is imperative. Parliament will at once take up the question.

The strikes have greatly diminished.

Belgrade, 21st—The people are still excited. In various parts of the city hostile manifestations were made against the Government, but were immediately suppressed.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

There is happily no reason for alarm in the actual condition of Buenos Ayres, and we ought to be all the more grateful on this account seeing the ravages that epidemical disease is at present making in Montevideo and Rio Janeyro. In the former city small-pox of a virulent character is so prevalent that 15 new cases were reported yesterday and the ratio of cases that prove fatal is unusually high. It is said to be a kind of black or confluent small-pox, such as broke out in the Brazilian camp near Concordia in 1865 and carried off thousands of men. No reasonable cause can be assigned for the present outbreak, but it is feared that the wells or cisterns of some of the bakeries in Montevideo may have become poisoned with fecal matter, which would be quiie sufficient to account for the plague.

The Montevidean Government has ordered all the policemen to be vaccinated, a very wise measure as far as it goes, but not sufficient to restore confidence. There is also talk of analysing the water of all wells and cisterns in the city, and the sooner this be done the better.

It occurs to us that as typhoid fever has been very prevalent during the last three months in Buenos Ayres it would be desirable to have an analysis of the water of all the wells and cisterns in our city. Medical men tell us that 75% of all typhoid cases originate in the water that is used for purposes of food.

As regards Rio Janeyro the ravages of yellow fever continue, although the hot season has passed; the number of deaths daily is still very high, and it is well known that the authorities of that city report much less than the real number of victims. If President Deodouro were in earnest about improving the public health he has only to pass a law prohibiting the outflow of sewage into the bay, and providing for the construction of a main-drain from the city to the foot of Pedra Bonita on the Atlantic. This work could easily be done at a cost not exceeding £400,000 sterling. It is incomprehensible that Messrs. Gabrielli or whoever had the contract in 1878 did not impress on the Brazilian Government the necessity of carrying the sewage into the Atlantic, and not into a land-locked bay like that of Rio Janeyro, where it festers and stagnates along the beach under a tropical sun.

Buenos Ayres is unspeakably compromised by the neglect of the Brazilian authorities in this matter. We have vessels daily entering our port after touching at Rio Janeyro, and no quarantine or lazzaretto regulations are an effective guarantee against danger of infection. We have seen how readily Influenza was imported a year ago from Europe. We cannot forget the terrible epidemic of yellow-fever which swept off 26,000 of our inhabitants in 1871. Under such circumstances common prudence suggests that we should take due precautions against vessels coming hither from Rio Janeyro.

This being our winter season it is the best time for dictating such measures. Let the Municipality enforce the plentiful use of white-wash, which is a cheap and efficient disinfectant. Let the water in use be analysed in every house in our city. And finally let the Government impose extra duties and charges on all vessels from Europe that touch at Rio Janeyro or Santos between the months of December and June.

MR. ANCELL'S SERVICES.

Some men have the good fortune to render valuable services to the public, and at the same time the modesty to keep so much in the background that their name never comes before the public. This is pre-eminently true of the gentleman who has been for some time British acting Vice-Consul, and as we learn (with much regret) that Mr. Ancell's stay in Buenos Ayres may not be of long duration we take the present occasion to tender him the thanks of the British community, and to express a hope that Her Majesty's Government may mark its recognition of a valuable public servant by conferring on him a good post in the consular service. If it were necessary to present a petition to this effect to Lord Salisbury it would certainly bear the signatures of the whole English, Irish and Scotch community, and if Her Majesty's Government desired anything more the Argentine officials with whom Mr. Ancell has had dealings would readily testify to the prudent and unremitting exertions on his part for those of his distressed countrymen whom the present crisis placed in a very trying position.

Mr. Ancell, of course, had simply to carry out the instructions of the consul, Mr. Bridgett, and the latter, with his proverbial kind-hearted sympathies and promptitude to help distressed people in every way in his power, was only too glad to find in Mr. Ancell a coadjutor in the cause of charity, whose heart and soul were filled with indefatigable zeal to assist his countrymen. Thus it has happily come to pass that yesterday all the remaining families of the unfortunate Naposta settlement were placed on the most advantageous terms. They are to leave Buenos Ayres on the 30th inst. for a new colony situated near Villaguay, in Entre Rios.

The poor people are so pleased with the contract that they have begged us to declare their gratitude to the British Consulate and especially to Mr. Ancell. We may remind our readers that the collapse of the Naposta colony threw 520 persons, in the most destitute condition, on the joint charge of Dr. Alsina, Commissioner of Immigration, and the British Consulate. They have been most kindly treated at the Immigrants' Home, and although some have died from effects of previous hardship the rest have been singularly fortunate, in the midst of so severe a crisis, in being so well disposed of.

Mr. Dickinson of Santa Fe took a number of families, and we are happy to say that not only is he well satisfied with them but they have also written to their friends here to say that they are very comfortable and happy. Messrs. Nelson of Quilmes engaged a still larger number, and others were placed here and there At the same time the Irish nuns hospitably received some of the little girls gratis, and the boys have been located in an orphanage in Calle Cochabamba under the care of a committee of Irish ladies.

In all these arrangements Consul Bridgett and Mr. Ancell took a leading part. It is, therefore, not without a feeling of pain that we learn that Mr. Ancell is likely to leave Buenos Ayres. But we can assure him that he has earned a lasting title to our gratitude, and that his successful efforts on behalf of 500 poor countrymen will never be forgotten.

FINANCES OF ENTRE RIOS.

Of the fourteen provinces of the Argentine Republic, Entre Rios appears to be the most flourishing to-day. Its finances, compared with those of the provinces of Santa Fé and Buenos Ayres, which rank higher in status of wealth and production, are most satisfactory. It has not pledged its resources and future in speculations such as have ruined the Provincial and Mortgage banks of Buenos Ayres and Santa Fé; it has not plunged into debt to build harbors, new cities, and fanciful colonies. It indulged in a provincial bank under the ægis of the Free Banking Act, but the bank appears to compare favorably with all sister institutions of the kind. It built a railway but was shrewd enough to induce the nation to guarantee half the bounty on same, and in the midst of the present crisis Entre Rios stands in a most enviable condition when compared with the sister provinces.

The comparative prosperity of Entre Rios is a surprise at a moment when the whole country is plunged in ruin. Some may consider this exceptional state of affairs in the Argentine Mesopotamia as an accident; but such is not the case, for Entre Riano Governors and legislators would have played fast and furious with the fortunes of the province, as happened in the other provinces, but that a certain ballast in the ship of state prevented the work of ruin, and that ballast is perhaps that very unruly spirit that gave Entre Rios the name of the revolutionary province of the Republic. Its rulers and legislators were afraid of the consequences of misgovernment and, therefore, kept within bounds.

When the present terrible crisis entered what may be termed its acute stage, say any time last year, the Entre Rios Debt stood as follow:—

Railways..........	3,500,000
Bank Debt..........	1,000,000
Municipal Debt....	212,000
	4,712,000

In normal times this debt would have been a light burden on the shoulders of such a wealthy province, but the crisis jeopardised the situation, and Entre Rios threatened to follow in the same ruinous wake as the other provinces. The English bondholders, that is to say the investors in the railway shares of the provinces, saw the dangers of the situation and very wisely proposed to take over the railway line if some compensation were given for the guarantee thereon. The Entre-Riano Government, we understand, has accepted the proposal and has offered to hand to the bondholders £400,000 stg. in bonds as compensation for the guarantee. By this arrangement the Entre-Riano Government reduces its foreign debt from £4,712,000 to £1,612,000 stg. This is a most satisfactory arrangement, as the revenue of Entre Rios provides ample funds to meet a service on a debt over £2,000,000. The bondholders, however, must now apply to the Government of the nation for compensation, as the National Government pays half the guarantee on the Entre Rios Railway; it is probable that the National Government will hand to the Entre Rios bondholders a compensation in National Bonds equal to that granted by the Province of Entre Rios.

THE SITUATION.

We must confess that the financial bills of the Government have not produced the impression that was expected. The gold market, which is considered a reliable barometer, has not fallen; on the contrary, it remains very firm in the vicinity of 280% premium. Now, if we study the antecedents of the market since the financial carnival organized to save the rotten State banks, we find that the only plausible cause adduced for the steady rise in gold was the general apprehension that we were on the eve of a fresh issue of paper money. No better proof of this apprehension and of its effects could be given than the very fluctuations of gold prices according to the popularity of rumours floated in the ambient. It was a rooted conviction that any solemn declaration of the President or the Minister of Finance, announcing the firm decision of the Government not to tolerate any fresh issues of paper money, would produce a magic effect and immensely improve the value of the currency.

To-day we read in the bills of the Government not only a radical banking reform, a repeal of the Free-Banking Act, but we see in every line a determination to reduce the volume of the currency and improve its value. Such assurances must necessarily be considered satisfactory and must meet with the unanimous approval of the public; yet the gold premium remains stationary. Some people argue that the bills are not to the public taste; others that Congress has still to decide the question. We believe the latter are right, for there are still doubts as to what Congress will do; meantime, there can no longer be any doubt as to the policy of the Government. Whatever causes prevent the improvement so much desired in the market, we may remain assured that the Government has done its part of the work in the general task of reform; the causes of resitance are not in the Government House and must be sought for in other quarters.

It may happen that people do not quite understand the bills of the Government. This is already visible in the comments of the press, where writers should fully grasp the subject they discuss. It is absurd to say that the Government authorizes a fresh issue of paper money because the new bank is allowed to deposit its gold capital and receive Treasury notes in exchange at the rate of 2½ to 1. This cannot be dubbed a fresh issue of inconvertible money; it has a guarantee of gold at its back, and it is most amusing to see advocates of inconvertible paper issues and fresh "curso forzoso" actually opposed to this concession to the new bank because it has a reserve of specie to guarantee it. A great many have an idea that the new bank is merely the resuscitation of the National Bank; but they quite forget that the new bank is started with new capital as a joint-stock concern which undertakes the liquidation of the National Bank and gets in return the privileges of the old bank; all connection with the Government is sundered; it is a private bank pure and simple

Another absurd idea is that metallic money mentioned in the Bank Bill may be gold, silver, copper, nickel, or tin. This is indeed a very poor compliment to the brains of the men in-power; for the sake of sheer argument such an objection might be raised, but it has no standing when compared with the general terms of the Bill.

People must read the bills and study what their sanction by Congres simplies. They imply a repeal of the free banking act; this puts a summary end to State banking, not even excluding the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres, which is rendered powerless, as it forfeits its right of issue; they promise the withdrawal of the paper issues of the National and Provincial banks first, and the issues of the other free banks must follow after; they give some hope that the currency will improve in value and that a basis will be given to redeem or convert the currency of the country. Under the circumstances, we should say that such a policy is the very best that could be offered the country; and if the gold market does not respond to the expectations of those who calculated on a headlong fall and collateral improvement in the currency, we may depend upon it that the causes of the rise in gold are either rooted in an apprehension as to the action of Congress, or, what is more probable, these causes are beyond the grasp of the bills of the Government, and spring from the general state of affairs: in the latter case we may look upon the financial bills as a mere brake impeding a rise, but not sufficiently powerful to produce a fall in the premium. Add to this that the effects of these bills must have been discounted weeks ago and that but for them the gold premium to-day might be soaring over 400, with prospects of "curso forzoso" and more paper money.

THE WAR IN CHILE.

ACTION OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

London papers of April 24th contain news that possibly foreshadows a rupture between G. Britain and the tyrant Balmaceda, which would hasten the triumph of the constitutional party in that country.

The Foreign Office have telegraphed to Mr. Kennedy, the British Chargé d'Affaires at Santiago, and have also informed the Admiral, that the closing of the northern or nitrate ports against British vessels destined for these ports and now detained at the southern ports on account of the Chilian Customs refusing clearance, is "ultra vires," there being no blockade. Many of these vessels are coal-laden, and others are under contract to load nitrate, and a heavy indemnity will have ultimately to be paid by the Chilian Government.

Under clause 17 of the Commercial Treaty between Chile and Great Britain it is stipulated that vessels detained on account of the closing of the ports, after an interval of six days, shall be entitled to claim expenses, and after twelve days shall be able to claim full indemnity.

The Foreign Office have sent a copy of their message with regard to the nonvalidity of the closure of the ports to the Pacific Steam Navigation Company of Liverpool. They have also intimated to other shipowners who have a vessel loading with nitrate, and likely to call at Lota for coal, that the Admiral will protect their interests, and that the Government do not recognize the propriety of the double exaction of duty. A German cargo has already been seized there, and a bond given for £10,000. The suggestion of the Foreign Office is that in the case of double exaction of duty only bonds should be given under protest until pending questions are settled with the British Government.

Serious fears are entertained that the people will be starved in some of the northern places. They can only be supplied from Peru and San Francisco, and the former country has little or nothing to spare, having itself to import food.

The British naval power in Chilian waters is believed to be strong enough to protect British interests.

THE ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

FACTS GATHERED ON A TRIP TO BOLIVIA.

Such was the subject of a most interesting lecture given by Dr. Thompson in the rooms of the English Literary Society on Tuesday evening.

The rooms were already crowded when Professor Martin took the chair at half-past eight, and in a few well-chosen words introduced the reverend lecturer.

Dr. Thompson commenced his address by a complimentary remark on the Society itself. He said that during his travels he had mixed much with the English-speaking residents of Peru and Chile, but neither in one country nor in the other had he met with any society occupying the position or doing the useful work which is done by the English Literary Society of Buenos Ayres.

There were three ways of going to Bolivia from Buenos Ayres: one round Cape Horn, which was the longest; one across the Andes to Valparaiso and thence by steamer to Mollendo, which was the easiest; and one overland by Jujui, which was the most laborious but also the most interesting. This last route was the one taken by him and General Osborn on their recent trip. The journey from Jujui was performed on muleback, but if good mules were purchased for a fair price they were saleable in Bolivia at a profit, which greatly reduced the expense of the trip; and it is very important to choose an animal with good paces, as thereby the fatigue and wear of travel is a matter of small consequence. It is also necessary to carry provision for the way, as the Indians refuse to sell anything, caring nothing for money that may be offered to them. This provision consists of biscuits, bacon, cheese and potatoes; the biscuits being of a special sort made in Jujui for travellers; ordinary biscuits get dried up and become so hard as to be uneatable.

The people of Jujui are of an extremely kind nature and well disposed towards strangers; they have their clubs, where they receive newspapers from all parts, and are eager in search of information; but they are excessively indolent, and suffer much from fever and ague (there called "chucho"), which is entirely caused by the water they drink being taken from the "acequias," in which it is impregnated with decayed vegetable matter. But in no part of the world is pure water more abundant, if they would only take the trouble to collect it.

Jujui produces sugar, cotton and rice in abundance, and has also vast stores of mineral wealth which only require opening up by proper machinery and appliances to become of great importance; but the people were eighteen months ago smitten with the same fever for growing rich without labour that has been the curse of Buenos Ayres. Many of them collected all the money they could and sent it down to Buenos Ayres, where it was lost in speculation on the Bolsa; now their natural industries' languish for lack of the capital which has been thus squandered.

From Jujui the road runs along the bed of a river to the town of Tupiza, through most beautiful scenery, the path bordered by precipitous hills, on which small sheep grazed, tended by boys. Almost the whole population about there is pure Indian, speaking Quichua: they are very honest, so much so that if a mule laden with silver ore stray from a troop she never is lost, but a small charge is made for her keep till she is recovered by the owner. The wool of the sheep is spun by the women as they look after their flocks, and the thread is woven into cloth by the men on looms which stand in the open air. They are people capable of great development, and are very anxious to secure some education for their children Thanks to Sarmiento, there are now schools through the length and breadth of the land. Some of the children of these Indians go every day three leagues to school. In the town of Santa Catalina the school is so crowded that the children are much exposed to contagious diseases, yet the grant received from the "consejo nacional" is quite sufficient to provide ample accommodation.

Near to Santa Catalina the travellers visited three gold mines, accompanied by Messrs. Inch, Carlisle and Nelson, men of great experience in this class of mining, who testified that the ore was of very rich qualfty, which would amply repay the expenses of working.

Travelling onwards over the desert of Puno, the rarified air is so excessively dry that the nails of the feet and hands split up to the quick and the lips crack, but otherwise the climate is very healthy. Smokers are forced to moisten their cigars in water to restore the flavour of the weed, which is dried out of it.

It would be a great mistake to run the proposed railway direct from Jujui to Tupiza. The intervening country is poor and the engineering difficulties are great, but if it be run from Salta, it enters almost immediately upon a flat plain which presents no difficulty whatever, and runs through a rich country. Pierro is at present a desert, but water is frequently found at three metres below the surface, always within fifteen, and there is wind every day which might be utilized to raise it to the surface, where the desert would become a garden.

Bolivia has a population of 2,300,000, of whom 300,000 alone can read and write, and to them the suffrage is restricted. From the other 2,000,000 the finest soldiery in the world might be raised, yet are they merely serfs, toiling that a small minority of their fellow-countrymen may consume the fruits of their labours, and kept down by lack of education which is refused to them. If this atrocious system continue, Bolivia will ere long cease to have a place among the Nations.

The reverend lecturer described at some length the marvellous natural phenomena like to statuary seen in Bolivia, and enlarged upon the wondrous beauty of the mountain scenery in the neighbourhood of lake Titicaca, the highest lake in the world. After which he gave us the most recent information on the subject of the revolution in Chile, which he pronounces to be doomed to failure. In spite of the unquestioned unconstitutionalism of the proceedings of President Balmaceda, he says he has the people entirely with him, that the late elections for Congress went on with perfect freedom from official interference, and that the wonderful march of the Camus division is merely a sample of the devotion of the army to the nominal head of the state.

ROSARIO SOUP KITCHEN.

We have much pleasure in informing eur readers that this valuable institution hasbeen in full swing for the last 3 weeks and has more than fulfilled the expectations of the initiators of the charity. In view of the poverty and misery which have to be faced this winter, a meeting of representative English and American citizens was held at the English Bank on April 2nd, for the purpose of discussing some scheme for relieving the distress that already exists and must undoubtedly increase through the winter months; some form of soup kitchen was suggested by Messrs. Cutts and Graham, and a committee was at once formed to work out the details.

These were quickly arranged, and the Committee of the Sailors' Home supported the scheme most generously in offering the use of a portion of their establishment in Calle Progreso, for a small monthly rental, and undertaking to supply the necessary allowance of soup, meat and bread for 10 cents per ticket, which offsr was accepted at the next committee meeting of the Soup Kitchen Society.

In order to meet the current monthly expenses and to supply the necessary plant for the undertaking, it was decided that all subscribers of $5 a month should become members of the Society with vote and voice in the management. Twenty gentlemen at once subscribed, which gives the Society all the funds necessary for the presnt operations and leaves a small sum which is put to a reserve fund, and the Committee hope that others will subscribe, as it will enable them later on to extend their field of operations.

Soup tickets can be purchased from all members of the committee, and at the Sailors' Home; the price is 10 cents each, and the recipient on presenting the ticket at the Sailors' Home receives a plate of soup, a piece of boiled meat, and a good sized loaf of excellent bread.

Every member of the committee takes a week of inspection, and so far the food supplied has been excellent. It is reported that H. Majesty's Consul ate a plate of soup and a large piece of bread on one of his inspection visits.

The first week 415 portions were consumed and the second week 421. We are confident that many persons will buy tickets as soon as the society is better known, but they have very wisely started quietly, so that in case the experiment had not been successful they could have retraced their steps and tried a different track.

The following gentlemen form the committee for the present year: Messrs Cutts; G. van Oppen; H. Mallet; F. Mac Donald; J. Beenan; Begg; M. Graham. As the Parsonages and Consulates are the places of most frequent resort of the poor and needy, the Rev. Messrs Adams, Spangler, Father Sheehy, and the British and American Consulates will gladly receive tickets for disposal.

Poor families can also be supplied with rations to be eaten at home, if they come with the necessary tickets and the wherewithal to carry away their portions.

One small boy about 11 years of age came one morning from Alberdi road with a tin and 4 tickets; he had walked in and had to return on foot, and stated when he received the four portions that that was all they expected to get to eat that day.—Argentine News.

CAMP REFLECTIONS.

"There is no place like the camp," so he said as he sat down under the stout branches of an old Ombu and looked over the vast expanse of trefoil that lay all around him. "You see," he said, and he spoke with a Kerry accent, "When I first came to this country I could mount my horse and take a straight line to the end of my journey. All that is now changed, yet when I mount my mestizo on these far out camps we are not so hemmed in by wire fences as those living inside are. Here there is the old air of liberty to be still inhaled while galloping over long stretches of the green-covered earth."

Sr. Anchorena, after whom the railway stationed is named, is the owner of six square leagues of land around it. It lies midway between Arrecifes and Pergamino, say a distance of six leagues from either town. Don Juan Anchorena is an Argentine, pretty comfortably to do in this world and very generous to all the neighbouring poor of Pergamino who come in search of beef. Situated as this station is it should be to-day a flourishing little town rivalling the many others that have sprung up of late years by the side of the F.C.C.A.

Do passengers from Buenos Ayres ever wonder why Estacion Anchorena reminds them more of the Pampa than any other station along the line? The writer of these lines has wondered why it continues so, and was informed that Don Juan objects to part—not with any of the good things of this earth—but with the solid earth itself. He does not require gold, for of that he has enough, and his generosity in the beef line establishes his claim to benevolence, but it is not by doleing out alms only that an Argentine can add to the progressive strides of his country. What would Campana be to-day if another Argentine, Don Luis Costa, had refused to sell any part of his broad domain to those of the human race who were willing to work in order to advance themselves, their families and the Republic?

I thought I would have found Anchorena a stirring little town of business and I determined not to have my beard trimmed till I reached it, as I expected to find a barber's shop in the locality. The smile that stole over my face as I stood on the platform would have delighted the heart of a physician on the look out for a job. My beard did not trouble me at the moment. I stood at the station that is named after the man whose family is reckoned the richest in this Republic and began to think of the pyramids of Egypt and solitude. And then again the barber's shop, pyramids, and Anchorena station were getting mixed up in my mind as a four-wheeled waggon hove in sight. "Is your honour the man the boss expects at San Roman" the driver inquired on arrival. Having replied in the affirmative I jumped into the waggon and left Estacion Anchorena alone in iis solitude, an eqample of what a rich man is capable of accomplishing.—Herald.

FOOTBALL.

CALEDONIANS v. ST. ANDREW'S.

It will be remembered that these teams met three times last season, the Calys proving victors in every match. Since the institution of the "Argentine League" the St. A. have had some new players and are showing good form, having an unbroken record for this season. Both being equal as regards the League Competition, a great amount of interest was attached to this match, about 500 spectators being present. The Calys having won the toss, Brown, punctually at 2.30, kicked off for the Saints against a pretty stiff breeze. For some time play was confined to mid-field, but with the wind at their backs the Calys soon transferred the ball to the Saints' half, but owing to the splendid defence offered by the back division of the Saints, they were unable to score. Penman caused many a cheer, as time after time he defeated the Calys' forwards. The whole of the first half was very evenly contested, and just on the call of half-time Brown, from a pass of Buchanan's, scored the first point in the game. On change of ends, and with the wind in their favour, the Saints' forwards were not long in making Gibson's acquaintance; for some time he kept his goal intact, but, getting a long shot from J. Buchanan, he fumbled the ball, and Caldwell rushing up scored the second goal. Shortly after re-starting Frances dropped the ball nicely in front of the goal, and J. Buchanan, taking care of the goal-keeper, the ball struck the uprights and bounded through. During all this time the Calys' forwards were unable to get beyond the centre of the field. Towards the close of the game J. Buchanan again took the ball up the entire length of the field, and centreing to Lamont, that player had no difficulty in putting it through, thus making the fourth and last goal of the match. A pleasant game thus ended, 4 to 0 in favour of St. Andrew's. For the losers, Angus at half-back was the mainstay of his team, and were it not for his splendid tackling to kicking, the Saints' forwards would have scored much oftener. Sutherland put in some very effective work; but received little or no support from the other forwards; the backs played a hard, steady game. For the Saints J. Buchanan had no equal on the field, and although not scoring any of the goals, yet he is indirectly responsible for at least three of the goals. Penman and Frances played a splendid game, and on Sunday's play the two Rosarians, in their respective positions, were unequalled on the field. The following are the teams:—

Caledonians—Gibson, Caird Gifford, McEwan, Angus, Black, Corner, White, Sutherland, Wilson, Riggs (capt.)

Referee—A. G. Alexander (La Platense).

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Board of Public Works has presented a bill for $55,000 to the Minister of Finance to cover the expenses of inspecting the Central Northern Railway and branches until the liquidation is effected. The Minister will draw on the National Bank and against Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez and Co. for the amount, which will be paid from the funds set apart for the expropriation and technical inspection of the Central Northern, prolongations and extensions.

The works of the artesian well at El Balde have been resumed, under the superintendence of Mr. George Duflor, who had directed the works previous to their suspension.

Mr. G. White, President of the Great S. Railway Board here, has asked for a two year's extension of time for the plans specified by Laws No. 2446, 2582 and 2536 for the construction of a line from Buenos Ayres and Bahia Blanca with branches. The petition is to be granted on condition that the $50,000 be deposited as stipulated in the contract.

Messrs G. White and C. C. Clark, on behalf of the Rosario Railway, have petitioned the Executive for a delay of two years in which to finish the Belgrano—Las Conchas (Pobladores) line This concession was granted (without guarantee) on the express condition that the works should be commenced within 6 months after the approval of the plans and should be concluded within 2 years. The plans were approved on 26th December 1888, and consequently the line should be completed by the 26th June 1891. The reasons adduced by the company as grounds for their request are: 1st; the difficulties of every description encountered by them in dealing with private owners and with the municipalities of San Isidro and San Fernando with regard to acquiring land. 2nd; the magnitude of the undertaking 3rd; the present financial crisis. Half of the works are already finished, the first section of the line being open to public traffic. Taking these facts into consideration, and also that two bridges, respectively 67 and 83 metres in length have to be built over the San Fernando, canal and Tigre river, the Railway Inspection Office has advised the Executive to agree to the petition.

The President of the N. R. Board has forwarded to the Executive the estimate of the expenses of the National Andine line for the current year, amounting to $518,124$^{m}/_{n}$. Great economies have been made in the management, a large number of employees having been dismissed.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Rain heavily down, gold slightly and umbrellas generally up, with mud from head to heels, was the order of the day yesterday. As usual on a gloomy day, news, good or bad, was scarce. Those fashionables who were bound for the Opera House at night had their spirits as well as their shoe-leather damped by the downpour of rain. In this connection an evening colleague recalls the fact that, two years ago, no less than $14,000 was offered and refused for a box at the Opera for half the season! Times have changed since then. Rather.

The latest news about all the financial schemes in Montevideo is that they have broken down, and that there is no possibility of making six out of twice two, as the economic wiseacres down there have been trying to do for such a long time.

The U.S. war ships Essex and Tallapoosa entered port yesterday, the former towing the latter, which has her machinery out of order.

There seems to be no doubt now of some cases of yellow fever in the Flores Island Lazzaretto. If the weather were not so damp and close it would not matter. In Rio the pest is declining.

General Pico, Governor of the Pampa Central, has left his territory on a visit to this city. During his absence, his Secretary, Mr. N. Rodriguez, takes over the reins of power.

The Senate met yesterday at the usual hour and listened to the report of its finance committee on the Indemnity Bill of the Executive. Whilst accepting the general terms of the Bill and recommending that the measures of the Government last March and April be confirmed, the Committee availed of the opportunity of giving the executive a piece of their mind: they blame the Government in the most severe terms for not foreseeing the deficient results of the Internal Loan and for yielding to the views of the so-called financial notables; they also recommend that the Senate refuse to allow the National Government to guarantee to depositors their deposits in the State banks, on the plea that the nation has other obligations to meet. After the reading of the report the House held a secret sitting. The discussion was put off, but will probably take place on Saturday.

Those of our readers who have visited Rome will remember Pietro, the old beggar at the door of St. Peter's. The old fellow has just died at the age of 91, leaving a fortune of £14,000 stg. to an old blind woman in the same lucrative calling as himself. The old sinner.

After all, it does not seem quite certain that Common, the winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, belongs to the Prince of Wales. It was nominated by Lord Alington, and although negotiations were proceeding for the purchase of the colt by the Lord of Sandringham, which we understand were nearly completed, yet so far we have not on this side of the Atlantic heard of the ratification of the sale.

The meeting yesterday of the representatives of the press to establish a newspaper boys' Home was poorly attended owing to the bad weather. Four theatres have promised to give benefits, and the Fronton Buenos Ayres opens the ball with a grand benefit on the 28th (feast day) when a splendid game will be played. To-morrow another meeting is to take place at 3p.m.

The Rev. Arnold T. B. Pinchard will deliver an address to young men at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms on Sunday evening at 9 o'clock.

An evening contemporary says that larking, horseplay and chaff are by no means unknown in the ante-rooms of Congress, and that they almost led to a fisticuff match between two distinguished Deputies the other day. Mutual friends, however, interfered, and prevented what would probably have led to a duel and fatal consequences.

One of our most esteemed contemporaries is frank enough to say that it does not regard the advent of an Italian opera as the blessing so many of the papers seem to consider it. Slaves of fashion will pinch, starve and do all sorts of things to secure a box for the season, to keep up what they are pleased to consider their "position" in society, though the crisis has left their pockets empty. We have often heard of this concession to "position," long before the crisis was known in the land.

A lady fortune-teller announces in a morning paper that she predicts the past, the present and the future! This is a fortune-teller indeed.

There will be sixteen girls in the Triumphal Car on Monday next, representing the Republic, Liberty and the provinces. The young ladies are all of well-known families.

The Saint Vincent de Paul Society caution the public against an enterprising individual who is going round town collecting money in the name of this useful institution. He has no authority but his own for so doing, and the sooner the police go round town also to look for him the better.

"'Jack' Robinson, son of Circusman John Robinson, says that on one occasion his father, his brother Gilbert and himself paid a visit to Barnum at his home in Bridgeport. After some reminiscences Mr. Barnum asked them if they would take a drink with him. They assented, and as Mr. Barnum himself stepped to the side-board to produce the tipple, they expected something particularly fine. 'Judge of our surprise,' said Mr. Robinson, 'when the old showman passed around the iced water.' Mr. Barnum could not perhaps have done anything else that would have so impressed itself upon the Robinson family."

In honour of the glorious 25th Government intends to devote $2000 to furnishing the historical house in Tucuman in which Independence was signed. The furniture is to be a fac-simile of that in the venerable structure in 1816.

There is a jolly row going on between the Gas companies and their customers. The former want to charge the increased price which they lately agreed on, and the Lord Mayor philanthropically advises the public not to pay, and starts the novel theory that the footway in front of a house is the property of the owner of the latter, and cannot be torn up for the purpose of cutting off the gas without his consent. It is a very pretty quarrel as it stands. The times are hard for gas and tramway companies.

A curious lawsuit is promised about the will of the late General Frias, who left nothing but a little furniture and his uniform. A well-known gentleman in this city has somehow got the glorious clothing into his possession, and in spite of a Judges' order, refuses to give it up to the sole heiress, Doña Estela Frias, who has, therefore, appealed to the law.

The death of Mr. Jose M. Cibils, in San Sebastian, in Spain, is announced. He was a member of the millionaire family of the same name in Montevideo, and has left an enormous fortune to his young widow, who has no children.

The National Labour Office is working so hard and successfully that the 600 places it had open a few days ago are now reduced to 340.

There was no special dinner, after all, at the Foreign Residents' Club yesterday, its 50th anniversary, as a majority of the members were opposed to the idea. The splendid premises of the Club in Calle Victoria were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the dates 1841-1891 in flowers over the door of the principal saloon attracting great attention and admiration. The members quaffed a good deal of the best champagne in their cellars during the day, in honour of the Club's Jubilee.

The Prensa expects that the students' ball on the 24th will be rather an uproarious affair, as the subscription is only $5 a head, and every youngster can invite as many ladies as he likes. In the circular which these young gentlemen "de buen humor" have sent round they admit that the ball is to be conducted on the following general principles: "Lots of good humour, plenty of noise, good appetite, little bother and less money.' Bravo!

"Absit omen!" The name of the Premier of the new Cabinet in Chile is Espinosa. If the rebels get to Santiago as soon as Mr. Walker Martinez expects, they will make it thorny for him.

Respecting the disappearance of M. Dore, of the French Legation at Montevideo, the Times of that city says that the police have a clue to the mystery which is at present kept in reserve. He has now been missing some eight days. He is not supposed to be in Buenos Aires, as telegrams have been received from his friends here asking after him.

The dark ages—those that the old bachelor or elderly spinster always keeps shady about.

The fact that the provincial police catch 81 per cent of law-breakers seems to have put the Metropolitan "blues" on their mettle, as, during the first fortnight of this month they worked up to 76 per cent of arrests, from 61 some time ago.

That unfortunate institution the Argentine Great Western Railway is again at loggerheads with the General Railway Board, which has ordered force to be used to enable the Inspectors to do their duty. A railway that can only be inspected by the use of swords, revolvers and bayonets is rather an amusing concern, if nothing else; and the staid and solemn Britons who are its shareholders must roll their eyes and wring their plump hands when they hear of such goings on.

With the unbidden tear welling up in both eyes we read that our friend Don Adolfo Bulrich has been commissioned to hammer down to the highest bidder the Grand Olimpo Theatre at La Plata, which was opened with such a flourish of trumpets, fiddles, trombones, big drums and all the other component parts of a first-chop orchestra last year. The upset price is $150,000, and any fool who pays half the money for it is likely to be upset in the same way as the present owners, as there is an Olympian mortgage of 300,000 Cedulas on the precious property. There is quite too much "teatro" in La Plata for its size and pocket.

The blaze in Calle Corrientes the other night, by which four wooden shanties were destroyed, is now known to have been an act of vengeance, and the culprit is in custody. It is well nobody was roasted alive, as the criminal probably intended.

The Finance Minister's "Memoria" is anxiously looked for, as it is said to contain long and spicy references to the failure of Baring, who so generously helped this country to much more hard cash than was good for it. Dr. Lopez, "on dit," has quite eclipsed the record of long-windedness in this Report to Congress, as it consists of three thick volumes! The prospect of having to "boil down" this for our readers makes us turn as pale as death.

Uncle Sam is not improving in his commercial morals since the days when he played off on an old fashioned and honest world that grim joke of wooden hams and nutmegs. He is addicted, moreover, to calling a cock a "rooster;" and there is a kind of poetic justice in the fact that an Amsterdam paper that pays special attention to the adulteration of food, and which is very ably edited by Mr. Roos (without the ter) affirms that 27 per cent of the vast food exports of the United States are so grossly adulterated or altogether falsified, that the exportation is rapidly falling off.

The heir to the throne of all the Russias does not seem to be made of the proper stuff for an autocrat. The soda-water bottle incident while he was in India reflected little credit on himself or his staff, and now Hawk says:—"Nothing about the Czarewitch excited more astonishment in India than the shabby character of his armoury, which consisted of a single clumsy rifle, looking as if it were intended for no game smaller than elephants. His suite, too, which consisted of dashing cavalry officers, seemed to be in mortal terror all the time least anybody should ask them to get up on horseback. Altogether the Heir to All the Russias did not impress the people he came across as being a very terrible person.

Thursday, May 21.
There was no change in the state of the market at the first hour to-day, and, strange to say, the first impressions of the Government's projects remain also unchanged, so that the Bills go to the Chambers tinged with the unfavourable atmosphere created by the pessimistic prognostications of the financial homeopathists. The fixing of a part of the capital in gold seems to be the sticking point. The anti-emission party cling tooth and nail to the conviction that this is a pretext for more paper, and they reject all attempts to shew that shinplasters are one thing and guaranteed banknotes another. Undoubtedly the matter would be clearer if the bill said gold instead of metal, but it is quite clear that even if the chambers make the change, the opposition will not decline in force. The latest proposition is to devote the proceeds of the Internal Loan to the formation of the new bank, and if this were done the bank could count on, say, 28 millions paper, according as the re-discounted bills became amortized. But this would be a tedious process, which must necessarily militate against its adoption. Furthermore, the doubt remains whether the bondholders would be willing to turn shareholders, even admitting the manifest advantages attached thereto. There are, in fact, a thousand and one objections to be urged to the scheme, and the solution of the banking question seems unfortunately as far off as ever.
The business of the first hour embraced the sale of 8846 ounces, opening at 61.60, fluctuating between 61.30 and 61.70 and closing at the latter rate. which gives an equivalent of 379 per cent. Some Patriotic Loan scrip, 50 p.c. paid, changed hands at 34, but National Bank shares were quite neglected, not a single sale having been effected. Cedulas were fairly active, but there was no change in prices, whilst Catalinas and Constructors reflected a pronounced weakness, closing at 7.20 and 5 respectively. A small business was done in Constructora de Flores at 15 and 14.

The resolution of the National Bank Board not to take cheques in payment of interest due on bills has not created a good impression in the market, as in future the interest will have to be paid in cash, which will naturally tell on the value of cheques. The latter, of course, will still be tender for the amortizations, and as such easily realizable, but it is expected that the move of the board will tend towards a rise in the rate of discount.
Cables have been received from London announcing a meeting of representatives of Argentine tramway companies, at which the increase of two cents in the fares proposed by Lord Mayor Bollini was taken up for consideration. The meeting declared itself totally opposed to the measure, and the managers will be instructed to insist upon the vigorous fulfilment of the terms of the concessions.
According to the report of the Caja de Conversion, the Internal or Patriotic Loan as subscribed amounted to $43,891,600, of which $28,534,101 were collected; before the decree suspending the third and subsequent calls was published, lesving a balance of $67,713 still due on foot of second call. Of the total 28¼ millions paid up, there were paid to

National Bank......	10,958,000
Provincial Band....	15,888,000

against selected bills from their respective «carteras», which represent:

National Bank......	18,175,073
Provinciel Bank....	29,939,723
	48,114,794

It was arranged to collect the interest in advance, the contributions in this respect being:

National Bank.....	219,160
Provincial Bank....	317,760
	536,920

And in June a further sum of $360,000 will be collected, making a total of $896,920 to meet the $760,000 required for the service of the bonds. The expenses in connection with the loan sum up to $19,243. There were 8629 subscribers, of which 4281 correspond to this city and 4302 to the provinces.
Yesterday a sale was effected in the Once Market of 20,000 bags of barleta, French and Saldome wheat at 14.80 per 100 kilos, purchased by the firm of J. Dreyfus and Co.
Telegrams from Santa-Fe say that Don Gregorio Torres has purchased the camp establishment «El Espin», including cattle, etc., belonging to Eugenio Aleman, for $822,907. The camp measures 20 leagues.

With regard to the hitch in the Baring liquidation, the Huropean Mail says:—«Perhaps in no other part of the world is the spirit of speculation so strong as in the city of London. The banks and other financial institutions having come to the rescue of the house of Baring, Lloyd's is now prepared to cover any loss that may arise amongst the guarantors of the estate on the payment of a premium of five guineas per cent! It is true that in some financial quarters an eventual loss of 10 per cent is looked forward to, but seeing that two years and a half is the time allowed for the liquidation, there is every reason to suppose that the estate will be materially benefitted before 1894 by the course of affairs in the Argentine and Uruguayan Republics. We have not heard of any business being done in this particular risk.»

The rain put a damper on business at the second hour, so that transactions in gold were limited to the sale of 4,114 ounces, opening at 61.80 fluctuating between 61.90 and 61.70 and closing at 61.80. In sovereigns only 3,000 changed hands opening at 19.25 and closing at 19.30. Cedulas were in good demand, bul rates were rather weaker, P being down to 39½ and N and O to 39. Constructors and Catalinas continued very dull and weak, and a solitary lot of National Bank shares was marked done at 34. This, with a lot of Banco Español at 95 and Flores Constructors at 14½, brought the business to a close.

In spite of the resolution of the National Bank not to receive in future the payment of the interest on bills in cheques, the latter improved to-day, being done freely at 13%, whilst Provincial cheques were in demand at 14 to 14½%.

The well-known real-estote brokers Messrs. Benitez Hnos. report the following transactions effected :—Three-quarters of a league of camp in Olavarria at 55,000 m|n per league, buyer Mr. Fco. Bardelle, who also bought a league alongside for 40,000 m|n ; 1200 squares in Rojas at 75 m|n the square, buyer Mr. C. Morca. Several other transactions pending will soon be closed.

Tucuman advices announce the last sale of sugar effected there at 7 m|n per arrobe, to be deliverrd up to 1st July, the business amounting to about 50,000 dollars.

The export of live-stock to Chile from this country embraced during the past four months the followiug :—Oxen 2910, novillos 1924, cows 1178 and calves 128. They were all taken from the province of San Juan, and the prices realized were highly satisfactory.

A Tucuman colleague announces the arrival in that province of Mr. San Germes, a sugar manufacturer, with four million dollars in his pocket for the purchase of sugar for Buenos Aires. «Si non é vero».

The Royal insurance Company favoured its customers to-day with a handsome little volume containing the value of the ounce, sovereign and 20f. piece at a gold premium ranging from 84 to 340, and also a very handy table of weights and measures. It is printed by Kidd & Co., San Martin 351.

In exchange the market continues very flat, without any change in rates.

The following gentlemen have been admitted as members of the Bolsa :—H. Ponzini, F. Mazzini, T. Mautalen, H. Winter, C. P. Dematteis, C. Ropolo, A. Migliarg, R. J. Fennessy, F. I. Blencowe, Pedro Cabo, C. Visconti-Venosta, N. Tortarolo Calcaño, Juan Freers, G. Fehline.

In 1890 the gross receipts of the B. Ayres and Rosario Railway Company were £533,709, against £543,776 in 1889, and the working expenses, £300,710 against £280,791; making net receipts £232,999, against £262,805, a decrease of £29,806, or 11·34 per cent. An interim dividend on the ordinary stock of 3½ per cent. to June 30, 1890, was paid, and there is now a disposable balance of £80,697, out of which it is proposed to pay a dividend of a similar amount, making 7 per cent. for the year, leaving £28,801 to be carried forward. The report states that the results are not quite so favourable as for the year 1889, but the directors feel sure, having regard to the exceptionally depressed and disturbed state of trade in the Argentine Republic, especially in the latter half of the year, that they will be considered satisfactory. The receipts in sterling show a net decrease of £10,067 as compared with last year, while the currency receipts show an increase of $1,886,877, from very nearly the same mileage. An increase in the working expense ratio from 51.67 per cent. in 1889 to 56.34 for last year is accounted for by increased wages and cost of working stores, which have to be paid for in gold.

By order of the Minister of the Interior, the Prefecture department and all its branches, sub-prefectures, shall, in the future, be under the orders of the Minister of Marine.

The returns of the Custom House to-day amounted to

Imports	62,927.45
Exports	4,819.24

Receipts in gold	41.86

The returns of the month up to date amount to 3,203,804.08 dols. m|n paper and 3,808.25 dols. gold.

The Minister of Finance fixed to-day the gold price at 370 for payment of duties to-morrow.

In announcing the formation of the Argentine Committee presided over by Sir J. Lubbock, the Times says :—«The impression here grows stronger from day to day that it would be a wise act on the part of the Argentine Government to reassure Europeans, in a way which no other will, by allowing an investigation to be made by a commission of financial experts. There need not necessarily be anything derogatory to Argentina in such a proceeding, while it is quite certain that, if the position generally is really better than it is believed here to be, a very considerable improvement in the credit of the country would result, to the advantage of all concerned.»

Messrs. Luis Godoy & Co, sold yesterday the property Calle Corrientes 1743 and 1745 for 44,600 m|n ; buyer Señor P. Ducassou.

Muy Señores Mios,
Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimaduras sanan facilmente, y se hacen cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.
Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.
Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

From Symes & Co', Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we haye witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Befare of Piracy and Imitations.
